OUR MISSION

The MRPAC’s mission is to provide our community and youth with relevant, equitable, and meaningful opportunities to experience all aspects of the performing arts.

OUR HISTORY

The MRPAC proudly bears the name of Marilyn Rodman, a lifelong advocate for the arts.

The woman behind our name, Marilyn Rodman, whose love for the arts continues to inspire.

SUPPORT THE MRPAC

The MRPAC is more than a venue – it’s a place where creativity thrives, communities connect, and the magic of live performance comes to life. Your support helps us bring diverse programming, educational opportunities, and cultural enrichment to Foxborough and beyond. Every donation, big or small, plays a crucial role in keeping the arts accessible and vibrant for all. Join us in ensuring the stage is set for generations to come!

COMMUNITY ACCESS FUND

Our Community Access Fund allows us to provide space for production companies that might not otherwise have the budget to use our theater. In addition, this fund can be used to provide performing arts experiences to those who might not be able to afford them. For example, contributions to the Community Access Fund helps make participation in the Card to Culture program possible, opening opening doors to the arts for everyone.

GENERAL SUPPORT

With your support, we can continue to create and provide opportunities to people of all ages. You’re supporting...

Universal Accessibility
Family Events
Children’s Theatre

Masterclasses
Youth Internships
Affordable Arts Education

Educational Speakers
Community Theatre Productions
Preservation of a historical building
& community organization.

We are a professional performing arts stage. Come see us shine!

The Orpheum Theatre started next door in the old Union Building in 1912, with 250 seats reported on the second floor auditorium, it served the community as a silent movie and local Vaudeville stage.
